

Zuger Burg, Zug

Founded in 1999 with the goal of making other people's lives easier when moving overseas, the company has since successfully assisted dozens of families, individuals and companies to move into the Zug area. Let us help you get the most out of your Swiss experience - starting today.

Le Concierge - because there's more to relocating than just moving house!

Personal Relocation

Moving overseas with a family can be an adventure or a nightmare, exciting or simply stressful! Let us help with any or all of the following aspects of your move:

- Pre-move orientation tour of the Zug area
- Homesearch
- Arranging appointments at local schools
- possibly the most important part of the move to get absolutely right!
- Assistance in selecting a furniture removal company
- On-going destination support
- Departure assistance

Corporate Relocation

With its excellent tax rates, Zug is a magnet for overseas companies of all sizes and from all fields. Moving a company into the areas brings with it its own set of special requirements and we would be happy to assist with any or all of the following:

- Location of new office premises
- Selection and installation of office equipment
- Assistance for overseas staff
- Assistance in recruitment of new staff
- Moving on

Prices

By booking a package of time you make a saving on the hourly rate but there are no restrictions on how your booked hours may be "spent". A "standard" move for a family of 4 to include house-hunting, school appointments, furniture removal, connection of utilities, key handover, area tour and provision of necessary insurance and local contact information is usually covered within the Gold package.

Individual	CHF 120 per hour (ad hoc basis)
Bronze	CHF 1'150 including 10 hours
Silver	CHF 2'300 including 20 hours
Gold	CHF 4'500 including 40 hours

Not included in the above prices are: Mileage @ CHF 0.99rp per KM, Overseas postage (at cost), Swiss registered mail (at cost), Courier charges (at cost), Swiss VAT @ 8 %

For more complicated moves, we would be pleased to supply an individual quote.
